POETRY.

TO SARAH.—By JOSEPH RODMAN DRAKE.

One happy year has fled, Sall,
 Since you were all my own,
The leaves have felt the autumn blight,
 The wintry storm has blown.
We heeded not the cold blast,
 Nor the winter's icy air;
For we found our climate in the heart,
 And it was summer there.

The summer's sun is bright, Sall,
 The skies are pure in hue;
But clouds will sometimes sadden them,
 And dim their lovely blue;
And clouds may come to us, Sall,
 But sure they will not stay;
For there's a spell in kindred hearts
 To chase their gloom away.

In sickness and in sorrow
 Thine eyes were on me still,
And there was comfort in each glance
 To charm each sense of ill.
And were they absent now, Sall,
 I'd seek my bed of pain,
And bless each pang that gave me back
 Thy looks of love again.

Oh, pleasant is the welcome kiss,
 When day's dull round is o'er,
And sweet the musick of the step
 That meets me at the door.
Though worldly cares may visit us,
 I reck not when they fall,
While I have thy kind lips, my Sall,
 To smile away them all.

MUSICAL FANATICISM.

Most of our readers are aware of the enthusiasm with which Madame Malibran is everywhere hailed in the different cities of Europe. In England, the audience called for her to appear before the curtain to receive their compliments three times during the representation of one opera! In France, they threw garlands on the stage, and shouted most vociferously for her. But the dilletanti of Milan beat John Bull and Monsieur Crapeau all hollow. A musical publication gives a glowing specimen of the furore of an Italian public Notwithstanding that, Malibran may now, after Pasta, be considered the first singer in the world, still, we think, that such obstreperous ebullitions in favor of any vocalist is carrying the joke a little too far. We subjoin the account as a curiosity:

"The opera was Bellini's Norma; during the first act Malibran was called for sixteen times, which exceeds anything of the kind ever heard of on Italian boards. When she re-appeared in the second act, the applause was no longer confined to distinct rounds—it was a perfect tempest—one of those dreadful storms of the ocean derisively called pacific. The stamping of feet, clapping of hands, and the roars of 'Bravo,' interspersed with shouts of delight, lasted so long that the chief of the police, who was in the theatre, thought it necessary to restore tranquility. Vain efforts! for more than a quarter of an hour there was no other performance but that of the audience itself. A superior authority was sent for, and the principal magistrate of the city, after having, with difficulty, obtained a hearing, declared that if the noisy demonstrations of satisfaction were not suspended, he would feel himself bound to cause the evacuation of the theatre, because he could no longer answer for the safety of the building. This was the only means of curbing the enthusiasm of the spectators. It is, perhaps, the first time that an artist has been prevented from receiving applause on account of the danger accruing to the house from its excessive reverberation and shaking."

DOWN EAST THEATRICALS:

On Friday last, the good citizens of this place were informed, by means of conspicuous handbills, that there would be given in Smith's Hall "a theatrical entertainment, under the title of BE MERRY AND WISE!"—It had been noticed by some of our "wild ones," that the gentleman who was to perform was somewhat addicted to O-be-joyfulness—and with the impression that there would be more of mirth than wisdom, they hied to the hall in considerable numbers. The performer appeared first in the character of Richard the 3d, clad in his ordinary habiliments, with his cloak wrapped round his shoulders—a pair of thick woollen gloves on his hands, and a small piece of wood in place of a sword. It occurred to a number of the audience, that his appearance hardly justified the quotation at the head of his bill—and they doubted whether he would "speak and act with dignity and ease." In short it seemed to be generally doubted whether "Richard was himself", and he was received with a fair proportion of coughs, scrapes, and sundry other noises, all going to show that the majority suspected he was in no very fit condition for soliloquizing.

Our informant states that the audience would by no means consent that the "winter of their discontent" should be made "glorious summer by this son of York," and continued their lark until "Richard" got quite wrathy, and made strange gestures at them, accompanied by some "quotations," which were by no means calculated to remove the impression that he was a little 'how came you so.' The whole passed off in a rather noisy, but by no means ill-natured, style. When the tumult and laughter grew too extravagant, the performer betook himself to a small "convenience" erected to supply the place of a green room, and when order was is a measure established, he again made his appearance. Hostilities were kept up whenever he showed himself, and he was finally obliged to desist, without being so "merry and wise" as was set forth in the bill.

A number of those present insist that the actor was "essentially corned;" we do not know whether that was the case, but all seemed to be quite tickled with the appearance—"the dignity and ease" with which he turned up his phiz at those wags who would not cease tormenting him.—Bangor Adv.

NEW ENGLAND CROWN GLASS.—The New England Crown Glass Company have recently erected a new furnace and are manufacturing an excellent article. Their Crown Glass is thick, pure and of excellent color. Its thickness gives it an advantage over all thin glass, which is liable to crack from contraction in cold weather. Its surface not being polished after being blown, retains its enamel, brilliancy and hardness, and is not liable to the objection which applies to Plate Glass, of being easily and permanently bedimmed by dust.
The New England Crown Glass being purer in color than any other Glass, is preferable for Stores, as it does not tinge the rays of light as they pass through it, and therefore white goods particularly appear to advantage; and it is peculiarly useful for Factories, as some minutes of light may be gained morning and evening, in consequence of the absence of color in this glass. The price of second quality is reduced from the rates heretofore asked.
☞ Those who wish to contract for this Glass are requested to specify NEW ENGLAND CROWN GLASS. As much imposition has been practised by dealers in Glass, by deceptive marks on boxes and other artifices, any purchaser who may apprehend he has been imposed upon is invited by letter or personally to apply to the subscriber for any information he may wish to enable him to detect the deception. Orders sent to the undersigned, at Boston or East Cambridge, or to any at the Company's Selling Agents, will be promptly attended to. Persons wishing the appointment of Selling Agent, can apply to the subscriber by letter or otherwise.

☞ PRICE REDUCED. ☜
VEGETABLE EXTRACT.—This is the most valuable remedy yet discovered for the cure of Throat Distemper, or Malignant, Putrid, Ulcerated Sore throat—Scarlet Fever—Canker Rash—Canker in the Mouth, Throat and Bowels—Diarrhea—Dyssentery—Sore Mouth of Nursing Women—and the Acred Humors of Teeting Children—in short, for almost all the affections of the Mucus Membrane of the Mouth, Throat and Alimentary Canal. These diseases are acknowledged by all Physicians to be of the most severe and obstinate character, and have long baffled their skill and research. The discovery, therefore, of an effectual remedy for them, particularly for the various forms of Scarlet Fever, must be considered by every true philanthropist as an invaluable desideratum. As a common and perfectly safe family medicine, it will be found of inestimable value in cases of common Sore Throats and Colds—disordered state of the Stomach and Bowels—such as habitual Costiveness—Indigestion—Flatulency—Nausea and Vomiting. Also, in cases of weakness arising from Fever and all debilitating diseases—such as Consumption, &c—it will be found very beneficial as a cathartic and altrative, as it neither causes debility, nor does it, as is the case with the operation of most medicine, so readily dispose one to take cold.
The Vegetable Extract has now been some time before the public, and its great powers justly tested. Hundreds of individuals have successfully tried it, and several eminent Physicians are in the almost daily use of it in their practice, who are truly astonished at its great curative qualities, and are ready to give their testimony in favor of its efficiency and power. There now remains but one obstacle in the way of its very general use, and that is, the price. The proprietors, being desirous to obviate this difficulty, have therefore determined to reduce the price to 62½ cents per bottle, for one year, which barely remunerates for the great expense of preparing the article—this will bring it within the means of every person, so that no one need suffer for the want of it—and the poor man be able to obtain it for himself and family, as well as the rich.
N. B. Should any one still feel scrupulous of what is here stated, relative to the Vegetable Extract, and will call on one of the proprietors, No 118 State street, Boston, besides the recommendations which will accompany each bottle, other abundant and most satisfactory evidence will be exhibited respecting it.
Prepared only by A. S. GRENVILLE, Cambridgeport, and for sale wholesale and retail, by one of the Proprietors and general Agent, RALPH SMITH, No 118 State st, Boston.

INDIGESTION, JAUNDICE AND BILIOUS COMPLAINTS. ANDERSON'S VEGETABLE ELIXIR, for Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Jaundice and Bilious Complaints weakness of the Stomach and Bowels, and consequent loss of appetite; nervous complaints, headach, sour stomach, flatulence and habitual costiveness.
This medicine is composed entirely of vegetable substances is perfectly safe in its operation, and may be given to children or persons of the most delicate habit, without the least risk of inconvenience.
The uniform success which has attended the use of it where it has been extensively used, in Boston and various other parts of the United States, and in the West Indies, attested by disinterested and highly respectable persons, affords, next to a trial of the medicine itself, the best commentary upon its virtues, and the best recommendation which can be offered to those who are unacquainted with it.
Extract of a letter received from a gentleman in Boston, who had suffered severely from indigestion for three years. 'During this time, I suffered very much from mental depression, constant pain in the head and breast, and side, sharp shooting pains over almost the whole system—the food that I ate seemed to pass into my lungs and there remain, giving me great pain attended with a strong degree of heat. At times, I suffered so much from the pain of indigestion as to be confined to the bed for two or three days. During one of these most severe attacks I was induced by the advice of a friend to try your Vegetable Medicine. In the course of a few weeks I found myself much better, and by the time I had taken two bottles, considered myself wholly free from the complaint. I continue, on the least feeling of any thing like indigestion or pressure on the stomach, to take about a table spoonful of it, which, in the course of a few hours, completely restores me. It has had with me a very wonderful effect, in strengthening the stomach and invigorating the whole system, and judging by my own case, I consider it in all diseases connected with the digestive organs, to be a very valuable medicine.
It has been found singularly efficacious in cases of the most obstinate headache.
It is put up in large bottles containing a pound and a half, and sold at seventy-five cents each, by Jonathan P. Hall, Jr., No. 1, Union street, John P. Whitwell, Milk street, John I. Brown, near Boylston Market, Erastus S. Holden, near the Western Avenue, Richard A. Newell, Summer street, Boston; Samuel Kidder & Co. Charlestown, E. G. Lemon, Roxbury.

THE BOSTON MORNING POST.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 27, 1835.

Honesty the best Policy.—Hinted charges, insinuated detraction, and slander by inuendo, are especially and pre-eminently reprobated by honest and straightforward Democrats. If any one has an objection to make against the principles of the Democratic party, they desire to have it fairly stated and freely discussed; they are friendly to open and free discussion, and will support no principle which will not stand that test. If any one has a charge to make against individuals of the party, they require that it be made so distinctly as that it may be understood--and that the individuals be designated so plainly as to justify them in appearing before their political brethren in their own defence—to the end that truth may be known, and justice meted.—These reflections arise from a perusal of the following singular paragraph, which appeared in the Boston Daily Advocate of Monday:—

"If the Democratic party is to be built up in Massachusetts, so as to bring the Republican people where they were in the days of Eustis, there must be sincerity in the leaders. The people will insist upon sincerity, as the only guarantee on which they will bestow their confidence. Intrigue is much more successful with men of large means and ambitious wishes, with the whole class of monopolists, than it is with the mass of the people, who are honest themselves, and though sometimes deceived, always require honesty in public men."

We know not to what or to whom the Advocate refers. If there be any want of sincerity in any professing Democrats, it would doubtless be beneficial to have it made known. It should be made known in what the want of sincerity has been manifested, and by whom. To speak of the leaders of the Democratic party, is to speak very vaguely. Who are the leaders of the Democratic party in Massachusetts? We should be very happy to learn, and so, we doubt not, would our readers. The fact is, the Democratic party contains in its ranks many talented, many useful men—but it acknowledges no leaders. The Democratic party is founded upon, and led by, principles. Their leaders are not men, but principles. Their principles are their "cloud by day and pillar of fire by night;" and where they lead, Democrats hesitate not to follow.—Those principles are plain, easily understood, and easily followed; he who runs may read them, and no honest man need err in their interpretation. He who long and honestly and zealously follows them, obtains the confidence and support which is a natural consequence of his course—but he is no leader; the party does not follow him;—it merely sustains him while he follows the party, and carries out its principles. To talk, then, of leaders, is to talk of a nonentity. These things may be new to the editor of the Advocate, but time will convince him of their truth. Indeed, it is this following of fixed principles, instead of unstable and sometimes corrupt men, which most distinguishes the Democrats from the Whigs; and we wonder that the editor of the Advocate has not been enabled, from his elevated position on the high fence which divides the two parties, to discover the fact. His position is a fortunate and elevated one, enabling him, like the gods, to look down upon both parties and accurately observe their merits and demerits. So far as our own party is concerned, we shall always feel grateful for any revelations of either, provided they be not made in parables which cannot be understood.

Blowing Hot and Cold.—The Albany Daily Advertiser, in giving its views of the President's Message and the French question, begins by assuring the reader that "it is now pretty generally supposed that the President's message will studiously avoid any irritating language towards France, but on the contrary, will open a door for an immediate settlement of all difficulties as to 'the explanation;'" and concludes the statement with a postscript, quoting from the N. Y. Star the positive annunciation "that the President is desirous of a war, and will use very harsh language in his message to congress." We suppose it makes very little difference which of the two stories the reader believes—however, as the editor seems to assert the latter with more positiveness, we think the former entitled to the most credit, although neither of them rest upon any substantial foundation.

An imperfect Perfectionist.—One of the new sect of Perfectionists, who has lately been holding forth in Coleraine, by some means or other was, suspected of taking liberties with his female converts inconsistent with the holiness of his professions; the case was laid before Judge Lynch, and in pursuance of his direction, the unfortunate backslider was taken out a few days since, ridden nearly three miles upon a rail, tarred and feathered, and dismissed with an admonition to quit the town—a piece of advice which he very speedily followed. It is thought that he has learned by this time, what is not the perfection of locomotion—and we will bet a brass farthing that he can tell the difference between rail-rode and rail-road.

Gross Carelessness.—The National Intelligencer of Monday states that a letter from an officer on board the United States frigate Potomac, now in the Mediterranean, to his friend in Charleston, says that the frigate was, on the 4th of July, off Tripoli, where she fired a salute of seventeen guns in honor of the glorious day, when the following incident occurred: "The second gun fired, came very near doing a great deal of damage—it had been shotted, and the gunner had forgotten to draw the charge—the shot passed through the bows of the flag ship Delaware, about fifty yards off."

The Cherokee Indians.—JOHN ROSS, Principal Chief, GEO. LOWREY, Ass. Pr. Chief, and RICHARD TAYLOR, Pres't N. C, have addressed a letter to the Governor of Georgia, requesting him to advise the Legislature to abstain from taking any measures in relation to the territory in dispute between the State and the Indians, on the ground that they have appointed a delegation with full powers to settle their difficulties, and under the impression that all misunderstanding will be satisfactorily settled during the present session of Congress.

At home.—Solomon Simple of the Atlas, who writes from Salt River, says he made the journey to that place over land, without meeting or hearing of a civilized being. We congratulate him upon his having got into such appropriate society, where he seems to be enjoying himself remarkably well.

Mr Clay in the field.—Mr Clay was expected to arrive in Philadelphia on the 22d instant, and on the day previous a meeting was held in that city to nominate him for the Presidency. The New York Correspondent of the Courier, after saying that an unsuccessful attempt was made to put down the call, and giving a report that the meeting was numerously attended, and went off with effect and warmth, goes on to say—

"For the moment it may be asserted, by those whose policy leads them to mislead the public mind, that Mr Clay has not advised or sanctioned this proceeding.—If they attempt this I do not believe them. Mr Clay is anxious to be brought before the public as a candidate for the Presidency; and, if he can but obtain popular nominations in the cities of New York, Philadelphia, and Boston, he will consent to be placed in the unenviable condition of a man struggling for an office which he must know he cannot obtain. The friends of Mr Webster have nothing to expect at the hands of Henry Clay, and it is but right that they should come at once to that conclusion. From the time that Mr Webster was nominated for the Presidency by the legislative caucus of Massachusetts, Mr Clay has looked on him with a jealous and an envious eye, and resolved, as I believe, on the destruction of his prospects. Is not this plain to the eye of the most unpracticed observer?—And did not Mr Clay, on that very occasion, say to friends from New York, in a familiar conversation on the subject, 'I place myself in the hands of my friends, and shall abide their decision! I am a candidate, if my friends desire me to be placed in that attitude!'"

Here is a pretty snarl for the savans of the opposition to unravel—another formidable opponent, in the shape of a quondam friend, ready to contest with Webster for the honor of being a candidate for the Presidency, with only the vote of Massachusetts to keep him in countenance, and with much more than an even chance of losing that! We should be glad if we could afford the opposition a little comfort in this, their hour of distress, but we should violate truth, if we were to say that we could discern a single "available" hope to cheer and support them in their adversity. Every quarter of the political horizon must seem dark to them—even "black with an unnatural night." With a party which, when combined, is but a respectable minority, they find themselves hedged about with a clan of voracious aspirants, who are anxious to be officers, but are unwilling to serve as soldiers. We pity them from the bottom of our heart, but cannot help them at present, except by advising a rigid diet and total abstinence from all exciting fluids.

From Texas.—Gen. Houston left San Felipe about the 22d ult. with a considerable reinforcement of troops to join the commander in chief, Austin, near San Antonio. He was strengthened on the way by several companies. Gen. Cos, whose army consisted of 700 men, had been reinforced by 400 more. The enemy were in sight of Gen. Austin at San Antonio. In answer to Gen. Austin, who had inquired how his flag would be received, Gen. Cos denounces the Texians as rebels and traitors, and refuses to listen to their petitions until they have laid down their arms.

Still Later.—The New Orleans Union adds the annexed as a Postscript:—

"We learn from a gentleman who has just arrived by land from Texas, that the Texians had been able to surround General Cos, and his small army of 700 men—and that all chance of escape was shut out from him. The Texians speak confidently of an easy victory."

The Mercantile Journal of last evening states, upon what it terms "good authority," "that a letter has been lately received by a gentleman in New York, from General Bernard, at Paris, stating, that in his opinion, a war with France is inevitable. The king and his ministers had taken umbrage at some sentiments expressed by Mr Livingston, in his speech at the public dinner given him in New York." We think the Mercantile is deceived. There have been no arrivals from France of late; and if the letter had been in the country long, we should have heard of it before now. Besides, the alleged fact that the French government had taken umbrage at a speech made at a public dinner, seems to us to be rather absurd.

Three of the individuals engaged in an assault made upon the delegates of the late N. Y. State Abolition Convention, while they were passing through Vernon, have, as we understand from the Utica Standard and Democrat, upon complaint of Dr. Arba Blair of Rome, been arrested and bound over to answer the charge at the next General Sessions of the peace, to be held at Rome, on the second Monday of next month.

A desperate case.—The editor of the Gloucester Telegraph invites the ladies to improve their privilege next year, and court him. What a stupid fellow he must be—if he has tried all his life to court them, without success, he may as well hang up his fiddle.

The Providence Herald recommends to the authorities of that city, that they substitute lightning-bugs for the miserable dark lantherns which now serve to make darkness visible in their public streets.

The Philadelphia Herald states that the National Antimasonic corresponding committee have postponed the meeting of a national antimasonic convention till some time in the spring—time and place not fixed.

The New England Magazine is to be merged in the American Monthly. The united Magzaine will be published on the first of every month in Boston and New York, and will be edited by Messrs Hoffman, Herbert and Benjamin.

A young man by the name of Joseph Cady, has been arrested for stealing $25 from the bar of H. W. Cushman, of Bernardston. He pleaded guilty.

The Albanians have taken the preparatory steps for giving a Complimentary Benefit to Wm. Duffy, the manager of their beautiful little theatre.

Mr Paine is still in pain to part with his portion of a Providence paper. Will his patrons be pained to part with Paine, or prompt to patronize a purchaser?

The editor of the Northampton Courier, talks very learnedly and familiarly of cabbage-heads.

Jared Griswold Esq, Mayor of the city of Hartford, died at his residence on the 22d inst, aged 42.

The Revised Statutes are to be printed by Dutton & Wentworth—they will make a volume of 940 pages.

The New Orleans Bee states that from the 3d to the 6th of October, there arrived in Tampico, from four mines in the interior of Mexico, silver in bullion and bars to the value of $1,263,862 82.

The Missionaries who sailed from this port in ship Cashmere, departed from Singapore, July 8, for Siam, accompanied by Rev. Mr Jones.—Daily.

The Mystery of the "Mysterious Lady" solved.—The Buffalo Advertiser states that the wonderful mystery of the so called Mysterious Lady, is no mystery after all, as has just been discovered by the penetration of the people of that city. "On the first night of the exhibition here," says the Advertiser, "it was discovered that the fellow with the woman was a ventriloquist, and consequently that he gave all the answers, just as they had been given to him, while the Mysterious Lady sat mum, but moved her lips the while to cover the fraud! Such is the trick by which these two strolling deceivers have been pocketing a rich harvest of cash, while they filled the Gazettes with exclamation points, at their unparalleled feats! They were flatly charged with the fraud, when discovered, which so disconcerted the wonder-workers, that they fled the city, without exhibiting for the remainder of 'the season,' for which they had advertised.—N. Y. Trans.

Disasters on the Lakes.—The late gale on the Lakes occasioned the loss of many lives, as well as a good deal of property. The following vessels are known to have been wrecked, together with two others whose names are not ascertained. The first column of figures shows the number of men lost belonging to the crew, and the second the number of passengers lost.—The total, it will be seen, is at least THITY EIGHT.—Jour Com.

Extract of a letter to a merchant of Baltimore, dated Laguayra, 30th, Oct.—Beluche passed here ten days since, with 12 small vessels, conveying about 1000 troops from Barcelona and Puerto Cabello, and last night we received accounts here of General Garugo having marched from the latter place the day after they arrived, and met the Government troops at Nagua, and completely routed them—then marched into Valencia, and now has possession of that place.

I have sold the Stag to government, and she is now in Curacoa fitting out—she will be here again in about 10 days, and Jolly is to take charge of the squadron, and she will be his flag ship.

Fire.—On Wednesday night, a stable occupied by Mr Elisha Wheeler, on the Neck, (near Roxbury and Boston line) was destroyed by fire. Two horses, belonging to Mr Wheeler, were burnt to death, and a third was so much injured that he probably will not survive. The store of Mr W., and other buildings contiguous, were saved. The building was fully insured. It is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary. Engine No 6, of Roxbury, was the only engine there. The alarm was not general in the city, owing to the rope of the South End alarm bell not being "on hand."—Trans.

Singular Lusus Naturæ.—In the Tarborough (N. C.) Press there is a letter from J. Laurence, M. D. which speaks of an negro infant, at its birth, "breathing full and easy, and at times crying strong," which, though its "body, limbs and face, were well proportioned, and rather over the ordinary size, had no skull above a line drawn from the upper part of the nose by each ear, to a little above the junction of the neck and skull behind—no brain nor membranes. It was slightly excavated at the top and covered with a thin skin, and there were a few sprigs of woolly hair on the back of its neck." The child lived thirty hours and some minutes.

New Orleans and Nashville Rail Road.—The bill for the extension of this great undertaking into our state, passed the third reading in the Senate, yesterday afternoon, as it was originally reported, by a vote of 19 to 2. It will be perceived, by reference to our legislative proceedings, that it had previously passed a third reading in the House, but with the amendment, that it was to be taxed as fast as it was finished. We trust that the House may be induced to recede from their position, and receive the bill as it was passed by the Senate.—Nashville Repub.

Fatal Casualty.—An extra stage, in endeavoring a few days since to ford the river about a mile above Painsville, Ohio, was swept down stream by the rapidity of the current, with nine passengers on board.—Eight of the number succeeded after much difficulty in reaching the shore, but one of them, a young man from Vermont, named Hazen Bean, was drowned, as was the driver, whose name is John Butler. The coach and three of the horses were recovered, but the other horse was drowned.

It is suggested that the public offices at Washington are inadequate to the transaction of the public business, and that better accommodations are required. We should incline to the same opinion, and Congress should, without delay, make provision for extensive buildings to accommodate all the departments of government, and where every department may be convenient for those transacting public business at the seat of government.—Noah.

By yesterday's mail we have advices from Washington, which confirm the opinion we expressed on the 10th inst., in relation to our affairs with France. Our belief still is that there will be no difficulties between the two Governments, and that the next packet from France will bring such information as will place beyond question any further doubts upon the subject.—N. Y. Gaz.

More Ships of War.—We understand that the Navy Commissioners have made an application to the Grand Island Company, through their agents, Samuel Allen & Co., of this city, for the keel pieces of four ships of the line and five frigates, in addition to those contracted to be finished by them in August last. They will be brought down the canal early next Spring.—N. Y. paper.

A Strong Petition.—A roll of paper about the size of a peck measure, was last evening presented to the Board of Aldermen, purporting to be a petition, signed by 5690 citizens, praying for an amendment of the law regulating the weighing and measuring of coal in such a manner as shall make it imperative for all coal sold in the city to be weighed by weighers duly appointed by the Corporation.—N. Y. Sun.

Editorial Civility.—The editor of the Commercial has sent a large Turnip to his brother, of the United States Gazette, who has reciprocated, by transmitting some Philadelphia Buckwheat. These courtesies are, certainly, economical, and are something after the fashion of old queen Charlotte, who occasionally sent to the "dear king" a cheese and some tea.—Noah.

A trunk, labelled on the bottom "Tisdale & Co., Batavia," was lately found by one of the hands employed in repairing the canal, in a swamp between this place and Port Gibson, broken open and robbed of its contents, except a few seal-skin caps. It was supposed to be full of goods when taken by the thief.—Wayne Sentinel.

The New Orleans American of the 4th instant says—"We learn that the Mexican Consul, yesterday, chartered the schooner Halcyon, for Vera Cruz. It is stated, that it is for the purpose of sending despatches to his government. We are also informed that a body of troops, under General Mehia, left this place on Friday last for Matamoras, with the intention of joining the Texians."

A stalk of Buckwheat, which grew upon the farm of Mr Wm. Long, in Warrington township, Bucks county this season, produced the astonishing number of 2613 grains.—Poulson.

Steam Vessels.—The number of registered steam-vessels in Great Britain, according to a late official return, is 397, with an aggregate tonnage of 36,849 tons. Average tonnage 92 tons and a fraction. One hundred and fifty-three are under 50 tons, and 118 more under 100 tons. The number above 100 tons is only 126.—The largest is the Monarch, of London, which measures 587 tons. No other exceeds 400. Besides the 397 steamers registered, there are 83 not registered in Great Britain,—tonnage unknown,—and 46 building Including these, the whole number is 526. The account from which we derive these particulars, adds—"The registered tonnage is only about one third of the tonnage by admeasurement; we may therefore estimate the aggregate tonnage of steam-vessels in Great Britain, at above 100,000 tons."

We do not well see how this amount of tonnage is made out,—but admitting it to be correct, still the "daughter" can show as good an account as the "mother,"—the aggregate of steam-boat tonnage in the United States being, according to the last official returns, 101,306 tons. Of this amount, 40,677 tons are owned in New Orleans, 14,699 in New York, 11,122 in Pittsburgh, 6,562 in Cincinnati, 5,535 in Baltimore, 3,397 in Nashville, 3,066 in Philadelphia, and the remainder in other places. As a general remark the American steam-boats are much larger, handsomer, and of course more expensive, than those of the old country.—Journ. Com.

The Land Piracy Trials.—A special term of the U. S. Circuit commenced at Trenton on Wednesday last—Judge Baldwin presiding. Joseph Bridges, a sailor who belonged to the packet ship Sovereign, wrecked on the Jersey coast in April last, has been tried, and convicted of stealing gold sovereigns from the wreck. It appeared in evidence that nearly 2000 prices were missing out of 5000 that were shipped: that the crew generally helped themselves: that after the ship was wrecked, the second mate said to the men she was "well insured," and that if there was any thing on board that would be of use to any of the sailors, they might take it: and that some of the gold was found on the prisoner when arrested in New York. The jury in returning their verdict stated that there were circumstances of a mitigating character, which they recommended to the consideration of the court. An Austrian boy named Andrews was next tried for the same offence, and acquitted. On Friday, as we learn by the state Gazette, James Matthias was put upon trial for stealing a barrel of mackerel from the schooner Henry Franklin, cast away in November last.—Newark Daily Adv.

IMPORTANT FOR BOOTS AND SHOES,—CHAISE AND HARNESS.—Lincoln's Leather Preserver, renewing, softening, preserving, and when used in proper quantities, rendering the leather water proof. It prevents the drying and cracking—gives a softness and elasticity to the leather—renders it more durable, as well as more agreeable and safe to those who would avoid wet feet—boots, to which this article has been applied, are so much more durable than others, that its use is an important point of economy.

Being now made in large quantities, its price is very reasonable, and ample discounts are made to venders—paste blacking appears to advantage over leather thus prepared.

This article is sold wholesale and retail at No 13 Elm street, by GEORGE F. R. WADLEIGH, Agent for the Manufacturer.

Also, for sale as above, Lincoln's Paste Blacking, a prime article, excelled by no other invention for making leather soft and giving it a beautiful black lustre. eop s2m o21

GENUINE LIFE PRESERVERS.

From the Baltimore Patriot.

THE following paragraph, setting forth the value and importance of these Life Preservers, is from a late number of the New York Journal of Commerce. The expense of procuring a full supply of the article for every steamboat, would be comparatively inconsiderable, and ought not to enter into the calculation, when taking measures for adding to the safety of passengers, and for the preservation of human life. We learn that any number of these "Life Presrevers" may be obtained at short notice of Messrs F. Hutchings & Co, in this city.

LIFE PRESERVERS.—As it is impossible for steamers to carry small boats enough to secure the lives of their passengers in case of disaster, they ought to be furnished with a sufficient quantity of the India Rubber Life Preservers. The expense wouln be small, and the security against the appalling scenes which may otherwise occur, would be will nigh complete.—The preserver is nothing more nor less than a double girth to be buckled round the body, which can be put on and inflated in less than a minute, and being on, the individual cannot sink, but would float with his head and shoulders above water for months. If five hundred persons were to be cast on Long Island Sound or Hudson River, each with a Life Preserver on, they would be saved. But what would be their condition if obliged to betake themselves to these waters without such protection, especially if a disaster should happen in the night? We think the owners of steamboats owe it to their passengers to be provided with a sufficient number of Life Preservers always on hand, to furnish each passenger with one.

The LIFE PRESERVER may be obtained, in any quantity, at the Roxbury India Rubber Factory, where this article was first invented. Warehouse No 109 State st, Boston

THOMSONIAN BOTANIC INFIRMARY, No. 554, Washington street, BOSTON, Opposite the Worcester Rail Road Ticket Office.——The subscriber would inform his friends and the public, that he has taken that large and spacious Infirmary above named, and formerly occupied by Dr Brown and himself—that he has fitted it up in a style not surpassed by any other in the State for convenience and comfort: the rooms are large and airy, and command a fine prospect of the Worcester and Providence Rail Roads and the surrounding country on the West—Boston Harbor, its islands, shipping, light houses, &c. on the East, with the most pure air of any part of the city. The subscriber is also determined that nothing shall be wanting through every department of his Infirmary as to neatness and regularity, good order, the best of nursing and attention, to make every one who favors him with their patronage happy and contented. He has also a valuable library of the best selected books for the instruction and amusement of his patients He has also in readiness clean changes of linen for all patients who come to take single courses of medicine, and India Rubber coverings for the mattrasses and beds he always uses to prevent contagion. His steam boxes have windows with curtains, so that patients who are feeble can at any time put out their heads and breathe fresh air. The boilers are so constructed that he can at any moment graduate the steam to suit their wish or ability to bear, so that there is not the least danger to the most feeble constitution, not even for an infant of a month old. The shower of two quarts of cold water is delicious, though we never insist on it, as it is always a matter of choice with the patients, and a person who has once taken it will never after be denied, but will frequently call for more. The said subscriber has owned Dr Samuel Thomson's family right nearly three years, has given strict attention to its precepts, and for the five last months has administered pure Thomsonian medicine to over two hundred persons, many of whom suffered under the most desperate complaints, and had been given over to die by the regular physicians—and such has been his success, that out of the whole number every individual except two persons have been relieved, and more than three fourths cured who have left his Infirmary, one only having died at the Infirmary. He will still continue to administer Thomsonian Medicines in their purity at his Infirmary, assisted by Dr Darling in all difficult cases, who has been a regular Practitioner of the Thomsonian System for more than fourteen years in this city. Mrs. Badger will attend to the Ladies department at all time—she having been an experienced nurse over eighteen years, a part of which time she was nurse in the Massachusetts General Hospital, since in private families, and for the two last years a strict Thomsonian nurse. The subscriber would respectively invite the afflicted of all descriptions to call and examine for themselves, and if they should see fit to put themselves under his care, let their disease be what it may, if timely application be made, he will ensure a speedy relief.

N B. For sale at the above establishment, a general assortment of pure Thomsonian Medicines, done up with directions for use, at wholesale and retail.

s 18 P. D. BADGER, Botanic Physician.

THOMSONIAN INFIRMARY, CORNER OF POND AND THACHER STREETS, BOSTON.—The subscriber, after having experienced much sickness, and having found relief, (after having sought for it in the regular mode of practice in vain) in the Thomsonian mode of practice; and feeling very grateful for the same, besides having had considerable experience in the practice on others while at Dr. Watkin's Infirmary, in Harvard street; and having been at considerable expense in fitting up his house for an Infirmary, so as to make it convenient for himself and the sick, now offers his services in removing disease under the patronage of Dr. Samuel Thomson, from whom he will receive all his medicine, and he flatters himself that he shall be able to give general satisfaction. He will also keep Medicines and Family Rights for sale, and hopes to receive a reasonable share of public patronage. JOHN SHERBURNE.

MAN'S GREATEST AND BEST EARTHLY TREASURE—HEALTH PRESERVED—OR LOST, RESTORED.—SEARS'S AMERICAN HYGIENE VEGETABLE RENOVATING PILLS, are now offered, for the benefit of the public, by the Author, under an honest persuasion, that the certificates of their efficacy and effects; and the references and testimony respecting his own reputation and character, will secure for them public confidence. They have been the result of much research and experiment, occasioned by unusual sufferings from Dyspepsia and a diseased liver for 30 years. During a considerable part of this period, it has been to me an object of anxious solicitude, to discover some preparation of medicine better calculated to relieve me of my sufferings, than any I had heretofore used. And after many experiments in Materia Medica; and, among the vegetables of our country, I have succeeded in preparing a medicine, purely and entirely vegetable, which does in an eminent degree, answer that important and desirable object. Their effect is to excite and sustain a natural peristaltic action in the stomach and intestines, and to produce a discharge from them of all the morbid and bilious matter which they contain; and also to remove biliary obstructions, and promote and sustain the natural secretions of the liver. Hence they are peculiarly efficacious in curing all diseases, originating from a disordered state of the stomach and bowels: such as Indigestion, Costiveness, Bilious Cholic, Nervous and Sick Heodache, Hypocondria, Yellow and Black Jaundice, Cholera Morbus, Cutaneous Eruptions, Erysipelas, Heartburn, Sourness of Stomach, and General Debility. Their efficacy has been fairly and abundantly tested by my own experience and that of many others They may, with perfect safety, be taken by both sexes, of all ages, in cases of indisposition; and they are peculiarly effectual in liver complaints. In offering them to the public, I pledge my reputation and character, that a perfect trial of their effects will satisfy them of their superior excellency. In regard to my reputation and character, I have permission to refer to the Right Rev Bishop Onderdonk and the Rev Dr Spring, of New York; and I would also present the two following certificates from the Hon John W. Taylor, and the Hon Judge S. Young, of Ballston Spa, whose characters are well known to the public:—

"I certify that I have been well acquainted with William Sears, now of the village of Ballston Spa, for more than thirty years. He has through life maintained a fair reputation. His character for truth and general integrity stands high. Indeed I have never heard it impeached. JOHN W. TAYLOR.

Ballston Spa, Oct. 6th, 1834."

"I have known Mr William Sears for more than thirty years, having resided most of that time in the same town with him, and during that period he has sustained a character without reproach S. YOUNG.

Oct 8, 1334."

Extract from a certificate of Mr James Comstock, editor of the Ballston Spa Gazette—"For several years past Mrs Comstock has been afflicted with an unusually obstinate Dyspepsia, attended with a great degree of acidity of the stomach, and redundancy of bile For several months past she has taken Sears's A. H. V. Renovating Pills, and has experienced more benefit from them than she has ever received from any medicine. I can with confidence recommend them to the public JAS. COMSTOCK."

Extract from a certificate of Mrs Powel, wife of the Hon. Judge Powel, of Saratoga county—"For many years past I have been afflicted with the symptoms of a liver complaint, which have frequently been attended with a pain in my side, so severe as to confine me. About three months since I commenced taking Sears's A. H. V. Renovating Pills, which have greatly relieved me, and rendered unnecessary the use of any other medicine. I do highly esteem them, and recommend them to all who are afflicted as I have been, with a liver complaint. ANN POWEL.

Milton, Oct. 3, 1834."

ADAMS'S PATENT

SWELLED

BEAM

THE subscriber has on hand a good assortment of the Swelled Beam Windlass Bedsteads, which, for comfort and convenience is undoubtedly the best article yet invented; its chief peculiarity is that of the Swelled Beam, the effect of which is to produce a crowning, and elastic sacking, and effectually provides against its saging. They are easily set up or taken down, and may be saved in case of fire as easily as any other piece of furniture, and from its mode of construction less liable to harbor insects than any other kind; but above all its advantages is the ease and comfort obtained from the sacking, by means of its being made and kept elastic by means of the Swelled Beam, (the form of which is exhibited in the above cut.)

Orders thankfully received, and promptly attended to

PURE BEAR'S OIL may be had by the groce, dozen or single bottle, of A. BOYDEN, Hancock-st.

As in all cases, so especially in this, Venders, if they wish to secure the patronage of the public, should be extremely cautious not to sell an article for the Hair which tends to counteract rather than assist nature,

The virtues of Bear's Oil have been too long tested to need any eulogium; and at this time no one can doubt of its being the very best article for strengthening and promoting the growth of the Hair. An honest prejudice against the use of Bear's Oil has long existed, arising from two causes—the improper method of purifying it, and the imposition upon the public of a spurious article. That this prejudice may be wholly removed, this article now offered is warranted the pure Oil, rendered more pleasant by the addition of a little perfume—and the possibility of its injuring the Hair is entirely precluded by the manner in which it has been purified. To prevent fraud, the genuine is enclosed in two wrappers, the inside one being signed Arnold Boyden. aug 15
